

CM Portillo 2026 Ski Adventure Experience

August 29th — September 6th

The Experience: Stay at the iconic Portillo hotel in the Chilean Andes, which offers one of the last true ‘ski week’ experiences available worldwide. Everything at Portillo is top-notch, from fine dining to live entertainment, from the stunning setting on Lake of the Inca to fantastic ski-in ski-out skiing. Also included in the tour is a night at the Mandarin Oriental hotel and closing dinner at an excellent restaurant in Santiago. Check out their website: www.skiportillo.com

The People: Ski with a small group of similarly-minded skiers, with experienced Clendenin Method coaches, Bosse Landberger and Alfredo ‘Chino’ Martinez, leading the way. Chino and Bo are highly knowledgeable about skiing, Portillo, and Chile. The social element of the Portillo camp is a highlight—get to know other Clendenin Method skiers, and other hotel guests, while riding the chair, sharing meals, and enjoying live music at the bar.

The Skiing: Portillo offers excellent terrain for intermediate skiers and above. Only the 300-or-so guests staying at the hotel are allowed to ski the terrain, meaning there are never any lift-lines, and snow conditions remain favorable throughout the day. We choose the week of our camp carefully—The end of August typically offers warm temps and ideal ‘spring skiing’ conditions in Portillo, with off-piste conditions offering everything from smooth corn to easy bumps.
